From Donal Ragan, Chapter 2:
Problem 2.

A limestone formation is exposed on an east facing slope. Its attitude is N 15° W, 26° W. The traverse length from the bottom made with a bearing of N 90° W is 653 m, and the slope angle was 15° upward.

What is the thickness of the limestone?